Consent for photographic images

For marketing purposes we would like to occasionally publish group photographs of our students on our web sites and on our social media platforms.

We would be delighted if you were willing to consent to the publication of photographs including your image on our web pages.

Moreover, fliers and printed brochures are planned for our company in future. In this context too we would like to use photographs of participants. It would be wonderful if you were able to give us your consent for this.

Names will be published together with photographs of individuals in the event of special distinctions/achievements.

Important note: You are free to choose whether you wish to give your consent or not. It will have no negative consequences if you choose not to give your consent. If you do give your consent, this can also be completely or partially revoked at any time. We will then remove your photograph from the web page and from social media within two weeks. The same applies to your name (in social media we can only confirm this from our own pages. We have no control over content that has already been shared). Should you have also given your consent for use in printed products, we will continue to use fliers/brochures already printed. In the event of a new edition, we will then of course ensure that your photograph and your name no longer appear in the brochure or flier. Please be aware that our web pages are also accessible to search engines. You must therefore assume that your name and image will be findable by search engines.

Declaration of consent:

General terms and conditions

1. Purpose of contract

These general terms and conditions of services provided by the IRE|BS Real Estate Academy, hereinafter IRE|BS, govern the provision of training services within the programme selected by the participant and other related services.

The contractual services and participant requirements are given in these terms and conditions and in the relevant official catalogue (in hard copy or online download at www.irebs.academy).

The parties are IRE|BS and the participant admitted to the course.

2. Application for Admission

2.1. Any offer made by IRE|BS for the programme selected by the participant is subject to confirmation.

2.2. The application to the programme selected by the participant must be made to IRE|BS by the applicant by letter or electronically, attaching all the documents specified on the application form.

3. Admission

3.1. IRE|BS decides whether to admit the applicant to the programme selected by the participant. There is no legal right to admission. The contract takes effect on registration by IRE|BS.

3.2. The examination procedures for the programme selected by the participant are detailed in the examination regulations. The regulations applicable at the start of the course are valid throughout the study period.

3.3. The participant will comply with all visa regulations applicable and will obtain and renew any resident permit required. IRE|BS is not liable for any loss which might occur from not meeting visa or residence permit requirements.

4. Terms of payment

IRE|BS shall receive the course fees stated in the appropriate terms of participation or seminar information. The course fees are to be paid within the due dates for payment stated on the invoice. The terms of payment can be viewed on the IRE|BS website under the appropriate course of study or seminar.

5. Delayed payment

If a payment period given on an invoice to the participant is not met, IRE|BS is entitled to exclude the participant from the classes and examinations in the programme selected, provided that he or she is given a reasonable period of grace for payment after the end of that payment period and is informed that failure to pay by the end of the period of grace will result in exclusion from the classes and examinations.

6. Termination, withdrawal, exclusion of the participant

6.1. Termination

After admission to the course of study, the right to ordinary termination of the contract is excluded. The right to extraordinary termination of the contract remains unaffected.

6.2. Withdrawal

6.2.1. Withdrawal by IRE|BS

IRE|BS is entitled to withdraw from the contract up to four weeks before the start of the participant's chosen course if it will not run the course due to insufficient participants. Fewer than 20 participants shall be considered insufficient. However, IRE|BS is also entitled, on a case-by-case basis, to run the course with a smaller number of registered participants. In the event a course is cancelled, any tuition fees already paid by the participant to IRE|BS will be refunded in the amount paid. Any further claims of the participant are excluded.

6.2.2. Withdrawal by the participant

The participant may only withdraw up to the first day of the course. In the event the participant withdraws, IRE|BS will charge a flatrate fee for damages in the amount of 75% of the tuition fees. This fee includes compensation to IRE|BS for loss of profit. Any tuition fees paid above this will be refunded. Any further claims of the participant are excluded. The participant is allowed to provide evidence that no or less damage has been incurred.

Withdrawal by the participant is no longer possible after the first day of the course. The participant is then obligated to pay the tuition fees in full.

In this case, the participant is entitled to find a qualified substitute participant who wishes to fill the participant's place on the course. The participant will be released from their payment obligation regarding the tuition fees only if the named substitute participant fulfils the admission requirements and is admitted to the course of study by IRE|BS. The participant will then only have to pay a fixed fee of € 250.00 to IRE|BS for the additional processing involved.

6.3. Exclusion of the participant

IRE|BS is entitled to exclude the respective participant from the participant's chosen course in case of serious and fraudulent deception during the admission or examination procedure. A refund of paid tuition fees is excluded in this case.

7. Right of Withdrawal

7.1. If the participant is a consumer and not a merchant, he/she has a right of withdrawal in accordance with § 312b BGB and § 312d BGB in conjunction with § 355 BGB. The application for admission can be revoked in writing within 14 days without giving reasons. The withdrawal period begins upon receipt of this cancellation policy in written form and upon receipt of the admission confirmation, which constitutes acceptance of the contract by the IRE|BS. To comply with the withdrawal period, timely dispatch of the revocation is sufficient. The revocation is to be addressed to: IRE|BS Immobilienakademie GmbH, Barocketage, Kloster Eberbach, 65346 Eltville, Germany.

The obligation to perform by the IRE|BS only arises after the expiry of the withdrawal period. The right of withdrawal expires prematurely if the participant has already taken advantage of the services provided by the IRE|BS by attending the courses.

7.2. In the event of an effective withdrawal, the mutually received benefits are to be returned and any benefits obtained (e.g. interest) are to be surrendered. For the repayment of services received, the IRE|BS uses the same means of payment that participants used in the original transaction, unless expressly agreed otherwise with the participant. If the participant requested that the IRE|BS should begin providing the service during the withdrawal period, the participant must pay a reasonable amount to the IRE|BS that corresponds to the value of the services provided up to the point in time at which IRE|BS was notified of the exercise of the right of withdrawal in relation to the contractual scope agreed upon.

8. Changes to course content

The right to make slight changes to the content and term of the course is reserved. They do not entitle the participant to terminate the contract. Should speakers have to cancel their attendance, IRE|BS will make an effort to postpone the lecture or obtain a suitable replacement speaker. If the main course content is cancelled, the tuition fee will be reduced pro rata. Further liability on the part of IRE|BS is excluded.

9. Copyright notice

Seminar documentation and teaching programmes must not be copied, processed, altered, disseminated or otherwise put in the public domain without written consent by IRE|BS.

10. Liability

10.1. IRE|BS is liable in full for damage caused by wilful intent. IRE|BS is only liable for damage caused by gross negligence up to the level of the foreseeable damage intended to be prevented by the duty of care. IRE|BS is only liable for simple negligence in the event of breach of an obligation so essential to the contract that achievement of its purpose is put at risk. In this case IRE|BS is liable to the participants only for compensation for the typical or foreseeable damage. Should IRE|BS be required to reimburse considerable expenses, the foregoing applies where relevant.

10.2. IRE|BS is not liable for loss, damage or destruction of the participant's property in connection with running the course, unless caused by intentional or grossly negligent conduct on its part.

10.3. IRE|BS is not liable for damage caused by force majeure, insurrection, war and natural events or other circumstances beyond its control (e.g. strike, lock-out, transport disruption, orders by national and foreign government authorities) or technical faults not culpably caused, such as in the computer system. Force majeure also means computer viruses or deliberate attacks on computer systems by hackers, provided that appropriate security precautions have been taken.

11. Data protection

The data privacy notice on the IRE|BS website shall apply, which is also part of the contract. www.irebs.academy/datenschutz.

12. Law and jurisdiction

12.1. This agreement is governed by the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany.

12.2. The jurisdiction for all disputes arising out of the contract is Wiesbaden.

13. Written form

Amendments and additions to the contract terms and conditions require the written form in order to be effective.
